

The Rowan Institute for Public Policy & Citizenship (RIPPAC)

invites ALL students to join us for our ongoing networking and career advice speaker series.

Late Late Lunch with

Modia “Mo” Butler

- Partner, Mercury Public Affairs
- Chair, NJ Casino Reinvestment Development Authority
- Former Chief of Staff, US Senator Cory Booker
- Former Chair, Newark Housing Authority

Mo Butler is a highly respected public affairs expert with extensive experience in government relations, political campaigns, and strategic communications in New Jersey and Washington, D.C. At Mercury Public Affairs, Butler advises clients across various sectors including Government, Real Estate Development, Education, Healthcare, Infrastructure, and Not for Profits.

Attendance at RIPPAC events like this improves your chances of winning a RIPPAC intern scholarship this summer – up to $2,500.

Friday, Oct. 15, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. – Savitz 217

Free pizza for all who attend.

RSVP today by emailing dworkin@rowan.edu

Co-Sponsored by: Bantivoglio Honors Concentration, Center for Interdisciplinary Studies, Center for Responsible Leadership, Department of Geography, Planning & Sustainability, Department of History, Department of Law & Justice, Department of Political Science & Economics, and the Program in American Studies.